

Internship

Business and Application Engineering at Siemens Water Technologies Singapore

About Siemens Water Technologies (WT)

The regional HQ for Siemens Water Technologies is based in Singapore.

The WT team delivers process and waste water treatment solutions based on a global product portfolio for multinational and regional companies for a region spanning from India to Japan.

Areas of Responsibility

As an intern you will be fully involved in daily business activities and project work. Other responsibilities include:

- Technical Case Studies: Obtain and construct case studies of on- going projects for internal and external communication
- Engage in pilot trials and data collection for analysis.
- Create a standardized price matrix for standardized equipment
- Lead team cohesion activities
- Organize and orchestrate technical workshop for Siemens clients.

Knowledge and Experience

You have successfully completed your first year of studies in Business Engineering, Engineering or an equivalent study major.

- Skills: Strong technical understanding and analytical skills, good communication skills, creativity
- Attitude: Ability to work independently and result-orientated, open- minded and explorative personality
- IT skills: Proficient knowledge in MS Office (esp. PowerPoint and Excel)
- Languages: Fluent in English

Duration and Application

- 6 months starting from 23rd September 2013
- Apply by 25th August 2013
- Please send us your full application (CV, certificates, etc) via e-mail to:
thomas.steinbrecher@siemens.com